Scrofula Cured—Blood Purified by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.: "It is with pleasure that I send a testimonial concerning what Hood's Sarsaparilla has done for my daughter. It is a wonderful medicine and I cannot recommend it too highly. Sarah, who is fourteen years old, has been Afflicted With Scrofula ever since she was one year old. For five years she has had a running sore on one side of her face. We tried every remedy recommended, but nothing did her any good until we commenced using Hood's Sarsaparilla. My married daughter advised me to use Hood's Sarsaparilla because

"UNWARRANTED."

Some days ago this paper printed what it believed to be the correct program of the services to be held by the G. A. R. to-day. The item was furnished by a member of the post, and there seemed to be no valid reason why it should not be used in these columns just the same as any other public matter.

When we read, the next morning, that the program was incorrect and unwarranted and that several members of the Geo. W. DeLong Post, G. A. R., had called at the Advertiser office to express their displeasure, the reporter for the BULLETIN felt worse than those on the other papers when they saw they were "scooped." The BULLETIN man called on the friend who had furnished the item and "called him down," but the friend objected with the remark "stick to that program, it's the one we made out, but as there is considerable objection to Mr. Thurston, we may have to make a change in that one particular." We stuck to it and take pleasure in printing herewith our "unwarranted" version together with what may be considered the official program furnished to our E. C. the Advertiser. It will be noticed that our error consisted solely in the naming of Doctor Emerson as delivering the Benediction instead of Mr. Birnie. The publication may have been a breach of etiquette considering that the program was being printed in the office of another paper, but then, all "scoops" are "unwarranted" under such circumstances;

Any one who has ever had an attack of inflammatory rheumatism will rejoice with Mr. J. A. Stumm, 220 Boyle Heights, Los Angeles, over his fortunate escape from a siege of that distressing ailment. Mr. Stumm is foreman of Merriam's confectionery establishment. Some months ago, on leaving the heated work room to run across the street on an errand, he was caught out in the rain. The result was that when ready to go home that night he was unable to walk, owing to inflammatory rheumatism. He was taken home, and on arrival was placed in front of a good fire and thoroughly rubbed with Chamberlain's Pain Balm. During the evening and night he was repeatedly bathed with this liniment, and by morning was relieved of all rheumatic pains. He now takes especial pleasure in praising Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and always keeps a bottle of it in the house. For sale by all dealers, Benson, Smith & Co., agents for the Hawaiian Islands.
